Living nomadic culture

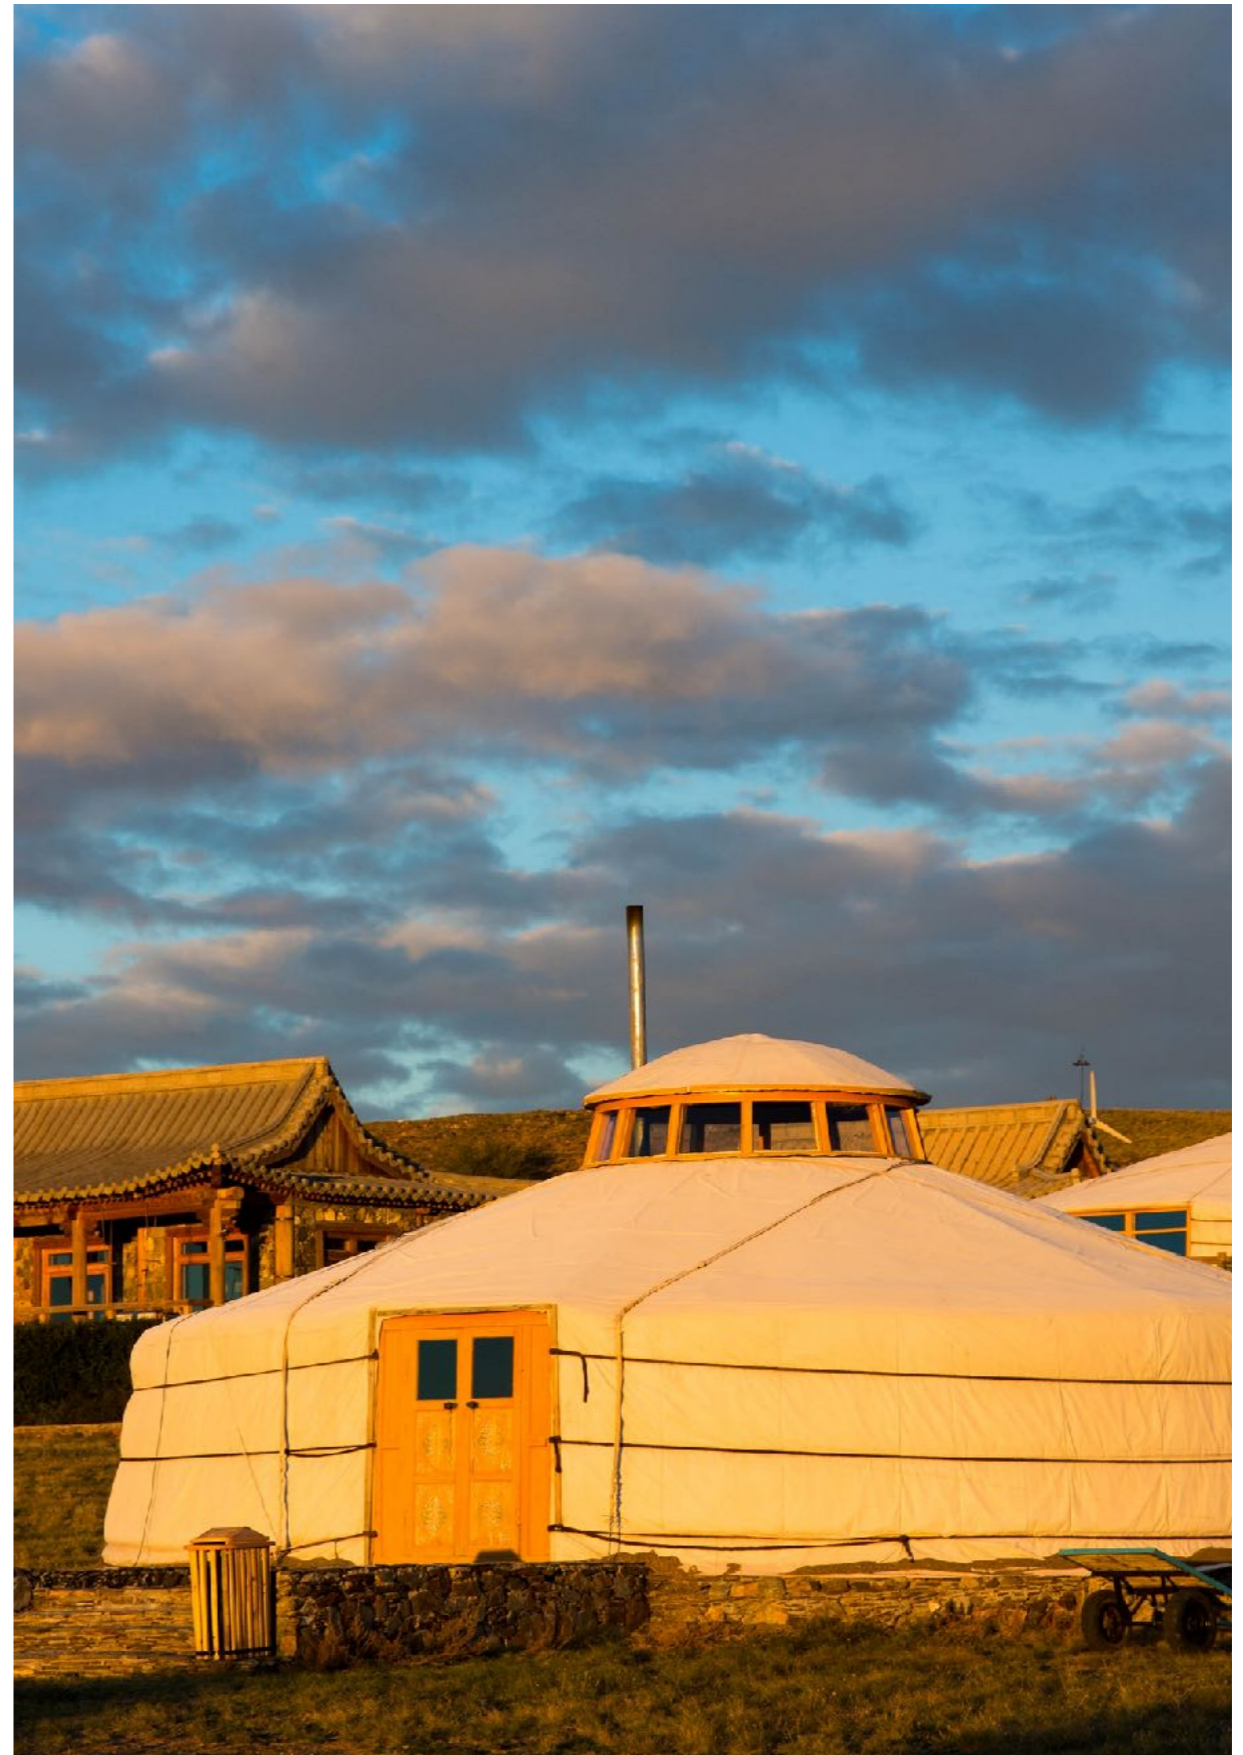

THREE CAMEL LODGE
The Gobi, Mongolia

Cultural Heritage Preservation and Celebration: Our Ongoing Mission

Showcase culture through our lodge's
design and construction, spanning from guest accommodations to communal spaces

Activities tailored to engage guests in Mongolian culture, such as constructing a ger, horseback riding, or practicing archery

Cultural Heritage Preservation and Celebration: Our Ongoing Mission

- Offer a library of films, books and games related to Mongolian culture and educational opportunities for guests to learn about Mongolian culture
- Offer traditional Mongolian dishes in the lodge's restaurant to promote local culinary traditions
- Offer excursions to cultural sites such as ancient petroglyphs or local temple
- Share local stories and legends with guests
- Provide spa treatments that embrace and incorporate local healing traditions and practices
- Support local community cultural celebrations and events
- Support local artists via our gift shop

We advocate for local artists and cultural education initiatives that ensure the continuation of traditions

We Lead Initiatives that Integrate the Preservation of Cultural Heritage with Wildlife Conservation in Local Communities

We engage in collaboration and establish partnerships with local non-profit organizations, museums, and educational institutions

- Arts Council of Mongolia
- Mongolian National Horse-head Fiddle Ensemble
- Bankhar Dog Project
- Wildlife Science and Conservation Center of Mongolia
- Fine Arts Museum of Mongolia
- National Art Gallery of Mongolia
- Mongolian National University of Arts and Culture
- Musical school located in the Gobi region of Hanhongor
- Mongol Art Gallery, 976 Art Gallery and other private galleries

We strive to promote Mongolian culture on a global scale
